

See differential diagnosis of the two closely related species Pachycerus segnis and Pachycerus madidus:

<https://www.curci.de/?beitrag=227>

Pachycerus segnis

Apex of rostrum anterior to middle longitudinal keel without distinct impression.

Pachycerus madidus

Apex of rostrum after middle longitudinal keel with distinct impression in triangle shape.

Skuhrovec / CURCI

Pachycerus segnis

Elytral scales rounded and entire or slightly shallowly divided into two lobes.

Pachycerus madidus

Elytral scales divided into two lobes apically.

Skuhrovec / CURCI

Pachycerus segnis

Pronotum with a few large and some small tubercles.

Pachycerus madidus

Pronotum with several large and many small tubercles.

Skuhrovec / CURC